

The Good Ol' Days (Interview)

You have probably heard a parent/grandparent sigh and wonder at some of the things you say, do, wear ... They may reminisce about the “good ol’ days” - when they were your age. Well, here’s your chance to really find out what life was like for them. Ask these questions and write up their responses. It will be interesting!!

1. What was high school like? How many courses did you take? What were the subjects? What was the daily routine like? Did you like school? Why/why not?
2. What did you do for social activities? Were there certain places to hang out, go to dances etc.?
3. Were there many rules in your household? If so, what were they? Were they too strict ? Too slack?
4. Did you have summer employment or part time jobs? What were they? Do you remember how much money you made?
5. Teens own a lot of “stuff” these days. Did you own much as a teen? What were your prized possessions?
6. Do you think teens have it easier or harder today – compared to your generation? Explain.
7. Just for fun ...
What was Halloween like when you were a teen? How was it celebrated? Any “shenanigans” in the community?

Due date: Friday, October 31st
