

Coffee Shop Fridays

Islanders love their news and what better place to discuss the events of the day than in a coffee shop. I want you to continue looking at current events by reading the Guardian. This term however, instead of a scrapbook we'll try a discussion format. I will still ask you to look for specific things and on Fridays we'll try to recreate that "coffee shop atmosphere." You are to peruse the Guardian throughout the week and decide on an issue to report on. You will be marked on :

- Article choice (does it meet criteria)
- Your explanation of the issue
- Your participation

If you are absent on a Friday, I REQUIRE you to submit a written summary of your choice, even if your partner is present. If you are present and report on your chosen news, you need not submit anything written.

These articles must focus on PEI. The categories I have chosen are as follows:

- 1) "Good News" Story for PEI
- 2) "Bad News" Story for PEI
- 3) Editorial of the week
- 4) Best Letter to the Editor
- 5) "Great Islander" of the week
- 6) Rural community story (not Charlottetown or Summerside)

Here is the schedule:

December 5

- 1) "Good News" Story for PEI: Jill & Krista
- 2) "Bad News" Story for PEI: Afton & Sara
- 3) Editorial of the week: Melanie & Devan
